

RATES OF ADVERTISING.
A square consists of space equivalent to ten lines this size (Brevier) type:
	1 column	2 columns	3 columns
One insertion	$1.00	$1.50	$2.00
Two months	18.00	27.00	36.00
Three months	24.00	36.00	48.00
Six months	36.00	54.00	72.00
One year	48.00	72.00	96.00

COUNTY DIRECTORY.
Circuit Court.—Hon. Jno. M. Elliott, Judge.
Robt. Riddell, Com'ly Atty.
J. R. P. Tucker, Clerk.
County Court.—Hon. M. M. Cassidy, Judge.
J. D. Reid, County Attorney.
J. R. Garrett, Clerk.
W. B. Tipton, Sheriff.
C. G. Ragan, Deputy.
T. H. Probert, Jailor.
E. E. Garrett, Judge.
J. W. Burroughs, Marshal.
Thos. Metcalfe, Pros. Atty.

BUSINESS CARDS.
RICHARD APPERSON, JR. THOS. METCALFE.
APPERSON & METCALFE,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Will practice in Montgomery and adjoining counties, and the Court of Appeals.
Office—on Public Square, opposite Court House yard. [Sept 10]

HAZELRIGG & WYNN,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Office on Main Street, Mount Sterling, Ky.
Jan. 9-17

B. A. SEAVER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
MT. STERLING, KY.
Will attend promptly to all business confided to his care.
Office North side Public Square.
Jan. 9-17

RICHARD REID, J. DAVIS REID.
REID & REID,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
MT. STERLING, KY.
Will attend promptly to all business confided to their care. Special attention will be given to the collection of all claims against the United States Government.
Jan. 9-17

W. H. HOLT,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Will practice in Montgomery, Bath, Powell, Wolfe, Morgan, Magoffin counties, and in the Court of Appeals.
Jan. 9-17

TURNER & CORNELIUS,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
MOUNT STERLING, KY.
Will practice in Montgomery, Bath, Powell, and Clarke counties, and in the Court of Appeals.
Jan. 9-17

ROBERT RIDDELL, ROBERT FLUTY.
RIDDELL & FLUTY,
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS AT LAW.
IRVINE, ESTILL COUNTY, KY.
Will practice in all the Courts of the 13th Judicial District, and in the Court of Appeals. Prompt attention given to collections.
Oct. 1-17

G. M. McMAHAN,
Dental Surgeon.
MOUNT STERLING, KY.
Office one door below Hesse's Jewelry Store.
Jan. 11-17

T. H. RIGGEN,
RESIDENT DENTIST.
MT. STERLING, KY.
Office over Maupin's Shoe Store, Main Street.
March 6

DR. RENNARD GUERRENT,
Physician and Surgeon.
Office opposite National Hotel, Mt. Sterling.
Where one of them may always be found, day and night unless professionally absent.
Jan. 9-17

ROBERT MOORE,
Portrait, Animal, and Landscape Painter.
Portraits of fine stock, and horses, painted on reasonable terms. Photographic portraits enlarged to any size up to life, on paper or canvas painted in oil colors.
STUDIO—Over Tallaferr's & Co's store, Winchester, Ky.
Mar. 23-3m

JNO. STUART, BEN. TAYLOR, JAS. STUART.
STUART, TAYLOR & CO.,
Commission Merchants,
AND DEALERS IN
Grain and Country Produce Generally,
COAL, SALT, LUMBER, ETC.
Yard and Warehouse, near Freight Depot.
Jan. 23-17. PARIS, KY.

G. C. KNIFFIN,
—DEALER IN—
Cooking Ranges, Stoves, Grates,
Iron and Marble Mantels,
Tin Ware, Pumps, Wooden Ware,
AND HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS, &c.,
MAIN STREET, (Hinton's Block), PARIS, KY.
Jan. 23-17

KENTUCKY HOTEL
Cor. Main & Maysville Sts.,
MT. STERLING, KY.
MRS. MARY CARTER, Proprietress.
THIS House has recently been thoroughly refurnished, and is now in complete order for the reception of guests.
The Proprietress thankful for the very liberal patronage & retorefore extended to her house, begs leave to reassure all who may extend to her their patronage, that no efforts will be spared on the part of her or her assistants, to render them the utmost satisfaction. Her

TABLE
Is at all times supplied with the best of the market affords. The

SALOON
Is under the management of Mr. CHAS. B. LINDSEY, and is supplied with the choicest foreign and Domestic Liquors, Fine Cigars, Tobacco, &c.
Jan. 9.

WHISKEY FOR SALE.
I have on hand,
50 BARRELS OF WHISKEY
First make of Howard, Barnes & Co. (March 1st, 1868,) which I will sell in packages of ten gallons and upwards. WM. S. BARNES.
October 8-17

JOB WORK
NEATLY EXECUTED
AT THE SENTINEL OFFICE.

THE KENTUCKY SENTINEL.

VOLUME II. MOUNT STERLING, KY., THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1869. NUMBER 2.

Select Poetry.

THE HIDDEN LINE.

[The following lines are now generally known to be from the pen of Dr. J. Addison Alexander. It is one of these productions of genius which never die.]
There is a time, we know not when,
A point we know not where,
That marks the destiny of men
To glory or despair.
There is a line, by us unseen,
That crosses every path;
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and his wrath.
To pass that line is to die,
To die as if by stealth;
It does not quench the beaming eye,
Or pale the glow of health.
The conscience may be still at ease,
The spirits light and gay—
That which is pleasing, still may please,
And care be trust away;
But on that forehead God has set
Indelibly a mark,
Unseen by man, for man as yet
Is blind and in the dark.
And yet the doomed man's path below
May bloom as Eden bloomed;
He did not, does not, will not know,
Or feel that he is doomed.
He knows, he feels that all is well,
And every fear is calmed;
He lives, he dies, he wakes in hell,
Not only doomed, but damned.
Of where in this mysterious bourne,
By which our path is crossed—
Beyond which, God hath sworn,
That he who goes is lost.
How far may we go in sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end, and where begin
The kingdoms of despair?
An answer from the skies is sent—
"Ye that from God depart,
While He is called to-day, repent,
And harden not your heart!"

Miscellaneous.

CAUGHT IN MY OWN TRAP.

Dora and I had been silent fully fifteen minutes, an unusual occurrence for us, when she suddenly broke out into one of her gayest, sweetest peals of laughter. The cars were going at the rate of forty miles an hour, but Dora's laugh rang out above all their noise and confusion.
"What is it, Dora?" I asked, half piqued that she had not at first told me what pleased her, and laugh afterwards.
"Nothing, Nell, only I was just thinking of something funny. Do you see that gentleman just in front of us with the beautiful black whiskers and dreamy brown eyes? Well, he has been watching you behind that book for the last half hour, looking as though he would like to take a bit of the red rose on your cheek. Don't blush, he's in love with you; I'll bet my gold thumb on it. I was just thinking of some of the stories I have read about young ladies mistaking handsome young fellows for their brothers, &c., and thought what fun it would be if you could only manage to mistake that gentleman for your brother Fred."
"Tell you what I'll do," I broke out eagerly.
"What?"
You know I haven't seen Fred since I went to school three years ago; and of course he's changed a great deal since then. Well, if that gentleman with brown eyes—he is handsome, isn't he Dora?—should he get off at our station, I'll wait till he gets mixed up in the crowd, see him suddenly for the first time, rush up to him in a flutter of delight, call him brother Fred, and give him such a kissing as he hasn't had since he saw his sweetheart last."
"Yes, I would if I were you," said Dora, sarcastically. "You don't dare to, you know."
"Don't I dare to, though? Just wait and see."
And so I dropped back into the cushion in silence, until the train stopped at our station.
Dora gave me a wicked look, and whispered that she knew my courage would fail me, for the gentleman was getting off the train.
I was not to be triumphed over, though, and so, as we stepped out on the platform I saw the literary gentleman standing amid the crowd, and with a little bound threw myself into the arms and kissed him full in the mouth, hysterically exclaiming:
"Fred, my dear brother, how do you do?"
I caught a glimpse of Dora—she was in danger of going into convulsions. I was expecting to hear the stranger say, confusedly, that there was some mistake; but to my surprise he gave me a hearty embrace, kissed me two or three times, said he was well, and that I had grown a great deal, inquired for my little friend Dora, who, all this time was exciting the sympathies of the crowd, as they supposed she was insane, judging from her frantic laughter.

Select Poetry.

THE HIDDEN LINE.

[The following lines are now generally known to be from the pen of Dr. J. Addison Alexander. It is one of these productions of genius which never die.]
There is a time, we know not when,
A point we know not where,
That marks the destiny of men
To glory or despair.
There is a line, by us unseen,
That crosses every path;
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and his wrath.
To pass that line is to die,
To die as if by stealth;
It does not quench the beaming eye,
Or pale the glow of health.
The conscience may be still at ease,
The spirits light and gay—
That which is pleasing, still may please,
And care be trust away;
But on that forehead God has set
Indelibly a mark,
Unseen by man, for man as yet
Is blind and in the dark.
And yet the doomed man's path below
May bloom as Eden bloomed;
He did not, does not, will not know,
Or feel that he is doomed.
He knows, he feels that all is well,
And every fear is calmed;
He lives, he dies, he wakes in hell,
Not only doomed, but damned.
Of where in this mysterious bourne,
By which our path is crossed—
Beyond which, God hath sworn,
That he who goes is lost.
How far may we go in sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end, and where begin
The kingdoms of despair?
An answer from the skies is sent—
"Ye that from God depart,
While He is called to-day, repent,
And harden not your heart!"

Miscellaneous.

CAUGHT IN MY OWN TRAP.

Dora and I had been silent fully fifteen minutes, an unusual occurrence for us, when she suddenly broke out into one of her gayest, sweetest peals of laughter. The cars were going at the rate of forty miles an hour, but Dora's laugh rang out above all their noise and confusion.
"What is it, Dora?" I asked, half piqued that she had not at first told me what pleased her, and laugh afterwards.
"Nothing, Nell, only I was just thinking of something funny. Do you see that gentleman just in front of us with the beautiful black whiskers and dreamy brown eyes? Well, he has been watching you behind that book for the last half hour, looking as though he would like to take a bit of the red rose on your cheek. Don't blush, he's in love with you; I'll bet my gold thumb on it. I was just thinking of some of the stories I have read about young ladies mistaking handsome young fellows for their brothers, &c., and thought what fun it would be if you could only manage to mistake that gentleman for your brother Fred."
"Tell you what I'll do," I broke out eagerly.
"What?"
You know I haven't seen Fred since I went to school three years ago; and of course he's changed a great deal since then. Well, if that gentleman with brown eyes—he is handsome, isn't he Dora?—should he get off at our station, I'll wait till he gets mixed up in the crowd, see him suddenly for the first time, rush up to him in a flutter of delight, call him brother Fred, and give him such a kissing as he hasn't had since he saw his sweetheart last."
"Yes, I would if I were you," said Dora, sarcastically. "You don't dare to, you know."
"Don't I dare to, though? Just wait and see."
And so I dropped back into the cushion in silence, until the train stopped at our station.
Dora gave me a wicked look, and whispered that she knew my courage would fail me, for the gentleman was getting off the train.
I was not to be triumphed over, though, and so, as we stepped out on the platform I saw the literary gentleman standing amid the crowd, and with a little bound threw myself into the arms and kissed him full in the mouth, hysterically exclaiming:
"Fred, my dear brother, how do you do?"
I caught a glimpse of Dora—she was in danger of going into convulsions. I was expecting to hear the stranger say, confusedly, that there was some mistake; but to my surprise he gave me a hearty embrace, kissed me two or three times, said he was well, and that I had grown a great deal, inquired for my little friend Dora, who, all this time was exciting the sympathies of the crowd, as they supposed she was insane, judging from her frantic laughter.

Select Poetry.

THE HIDDEN LINE.

[The following lines are now generally known to be from the pen of Dr. J. Addison Alexander. It is one of these productions of genius which never die.]
There is a time, we know not when,
A point we know not where,
That marks the destiny of men
To glory or despair.
There is a line, by us unseen,
That crosses every path;
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and his wrath.
To pass that line is to die,
To die as if by stealth;
It does not quench the beaming eye,
Or pale the glow of health.
The conscience may be still at ease,
The spirits light and gay—
That which is pleasing, still may please,
And care be trust away;
But on that forehead God has set
Indelibly a mark,
Unseen by man, for man as yet
Is blind and in the dark.
And yet the doomed man's path below
May bloom as Eden bloomed;
He did not, does not, will not know,
Or feel that he is doomed.
He knows, he feels that all is well,
And every fear is calmed;
He lives, he dies, he wakes in hell,
Not only doomed, but damned.
Of where in this mysterious bourne,
By which our path is crossed—
Beyond which, God hath sworn,
That he who goes is lost.
How far may we go in sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end, and where begin
The kingdoms of despair?
An answer from the skies is sent—
"Ye that from God depart,
While He is called to-day, repent,
And harden not your heart!"

Miscellaneous.

CAUGHT IN MY OWN TRAP.

Dora and I had been silent fully fifteen minutes, an unusual occurrence for us, when she suddenly broke out into one of her gayest, sweetest peals of laughter. The cars were going at the rate of forty miles an hour, but Dora's laugh rang out above all their noise and confusion.
"What is it, Dora?" I asked, half piqued that she had not at first told me what pleased her, and laugh afterwards.
"Nothing, Nell, only I was just thinking of something funny. Do you see that gentleman just in front of us with the beautiful black whiskers and dreamy brown eyes? Well, he has been watching you behind that book for the last half hour, looking as though he would like to take a bit of the red rose on your cheek. Don't blush, he's in love with you; I'll bet my gold thumb on it. I was just thinking of some of the stories I have read about young ladies mistaking handsome young fellows for their brothers, &c., and thought what fun it would be if you could only manage to mistake that gentleman for your brother Fred."
"Tell you what I'll do," I broke out eagerly.
"What?"
You know I haven't seen Fred since I went to school three years ago; and of course he's changed a great deal since then. Well, if that gentleman with brown eyes—he is handsome, isn't he Dora?—should he get off at our station, I'll wait till he gets mixed up in the crowd, see him suddenly for the first time, rush up to him in a flutter of delight, call him brother Fred, and give him such a kissing as he hasn't had since he saw his sweetheart last."
"Yes, I would if I were you," said Dora, sarcastically. "You don't dare to, you know."
"Don't I dare to, though? Just wait and see."
And so I dropped back into the cushion in silence, until the train stopped at our station.
Dora gave me a wicked look, and whispered that she knew my courage would fail me, for the gentleman was getting off the train.
I was not to be triumphed over, though, and so, as we stepped out on the platform I saw the literary gentleman standing amid the crowd, and with a little bound threw myself into the arms and kissed him full in the mouth, hysterically exclaiming:
"Fred, my dear brother, how do you do?"
I caught a glimpse of Dora—she was in danger of going into convulsions. I was expecting to hear the stranger say, confusedly, that there was some mistake; but to my surprise he gave me a hearty embrace, kissed me two or three times, said he was well, and that I had grown a great deal, inquired for my little friend Dora, who, all this time was exciting the sympathies of the crowd, as they supposed she was insane, judging from her frantic laughter.

Select Poetry.

THE HIDDEN LINE.

[The following lines are now generally known to be from the pen of Dr. J. Addison Alexander. It is one of these productions of genius which never die.]
There is a time, we know not when,
A point we know not where,
That marks the destiny of men
To glory or despair.
There is a line, by us unseen,
That crosses every path;
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and his wrath.
To pass that line is to die,
To die as if by stealth;
It does not quench the beaming eye,
Or pale the glow of health.
The conscience may be still at ease,
The spirits light and gay—
That which is pleasing, still may please,
And care be trust away;
But on that forehead God has set
Indelibly a mark,
Unseen by man, for man as yet
Is blind and in the dark.
And yet the doomed man's path below
May bloom as Eden bloomed;
He did not, does not, will not know,
Or feel that he is doomed.
He knows, he feels that all is well,
And every fear is calmed;
He lives, he dies, he wakes in hell,
Not only doomed, but damned.
Of where in this mysterious bourne,
By which our path is crossed—
Beyond which, God hath sworn,
That he who goes is lost.
How far may we go in sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end, and where begin
The kingdoms of despair?
An answer from the skies is sent—
"Ye that from God depart,
While He is called to-day, repent,
And harden not your heart!"

Miscellaneous.

CAUGHT IN MY OWN TRAP.

Dora and I had been silent fully fifteen minutes, an unusual occurrence for us, when she suddenly broke out into one of her gayest, sweetest peals of laughter. The cars were going at the rate of forty miles an hour, but Dora's laugh rang out above all their noise and confusion.
"What is it, Dora?" I asked, half piqued that she had not at first told me what pleased her, and laugh afterwards.
"Nothing, Nell, only I was just thinking of something funny. Do you see that gentleman just in front of us with the beautiful black whiskers and dreamy brown eyes? Well, he has been watching you behind that book for the last half hour, looking as though he would like to take a bit of the red rose on your cheek. Don't blush, he's in love with you; I'll bet my gold thumb on it. I was just thinking of some of the stories I have read about young ladies mistaking handsome young fellows for their brothers, &c., and thought what fun it would be if you could only manage to mistake that gentleman for your brother Fred."
"Tell you what I'll do," I broke out eagerly.
"What?"
You know I haven't seen Fred since I went to school three years ago; and of course he's changed a great deal since then. Well, if that gentleman with brown eyes—he is handsome, isn't he Dora?—should he get off at our station, I'll wait till he gets mixed up in the crowd, see him suddenly for the first time, rush up to him in a flutter of delight, call him brother Fred, and give him such a kissing as he hasn't had since he saw his sweetheart last."
"Yes, I would if I were you," said Dora, sarcastically. "You don't dare to, you know."
"Don't I dare to, though? Just wait and see."
And so I dropped back into the cushion in silence, until the train stopped at our station.
Dora gave me a wicked look, and whispered that she knew my courage would fail me, for the gentleman was getting off the train.
I was not to be triumphed over, though, and so, as we stepped out on the platform I saw the literary gentleman standing amid the crowd, and with a little bound threw myself into the arms and kissed him full in the mouth, hysterically exclaiming:
"Fred, my dear brother, how do you do?"
I caught a glimpse of Dora—she was in danger of going into convulsions. I was expecting to hear the stranger say, confusedly, that there was some mistake; but to my surprise he gave me a hearty embrace, kissed me two or three times, said he was well, and that I had grown a great deal, inquired for my little friend Dora, who, all this time was exciting the sympathies of the crowd, as they supposed she was insane, judging from her frantic laughter.

Select Poetry.

THE HIDDEN LINE.

[The following lines are now generally known to be from the pen of Dr. J. Addison Alexander. It is one of these productions of genius which never die.]
There is a time, we know not when,
A point we know not where,
That marks the destiny of men
To glory or despair.
There is a line, by us unseen,
That crosses every path;
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and his wrath.
To pass that line is to die,
To die as if by stealth;
It does not quench the beaming eye,
Or pale the glow of health.
The conscience may be still at ease,
The spirits light and gay—
That which is pleasing, still may please,
And care be trust away;
But on that forehead God has set
Indelibly a mark,
Unseen by man, for man as yet
Is blind and in the dark.
And yet the doomed man's path below
May bloom as Eden bloomed;
He did not, does not, will not know,
Or feel that he is doomed.
He knows, he feels that all is well,
And every fear is calmed;
He lives, he dies, he wakes in hell,
Not only doomed, but damned.
Of where in this mysterious bourne,
By which our path is crossed—
Beyond which, God hath sworn,
That he who goes is lost.
How far may we go in sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end, and where begin
The kingdoms of despair?
An answer from the skies is sent—
"Ye that from God depart,
While He is called to-day, repent,
And harden not your heart!"

Miscellaneous.

CAUGHT IN MY OWN TRAP.

Dora and I had been silent fully fifteen minutes, an unusual occurrence for us, when she suddenly broke out into one of her gayest, sweetest peals of laughter. The cars were going at the rate of forty miles an hour, but Dora's laugh rang out above all their noise and confusion.
"What is it, Dora?" I asked, half piqued that she had not at first told me what pleased her, and laugh afterwards.
"Nothing, Nell, only I was just thinking of something funny. Do you see that gentleman just in front of us with the beautiful black whiskers and dreamy brown eyes? Well, he has been watching you behind that book for the last half hour, looking as though he would like to take a bit of the red rose on your cheek. Don't blush, he's in love with you; I'll bet my gold thumb on it. I was just thinking of some of the stories I have read about young ladies mistaking handsome young fellows for their brothers, &c., and thought what fun it would be if you could only manage to mistake that gentleman for your brother Fred."
"Tell you what I'll do," I broke out eagerly.
"What?"
You know I haven't seen Fred since I went to school three years ago; and of course he's changed a great deal since then. Well, if that gentleman with brown eyes—he is handsome, isn't he Dora?—should he get off at our station, I'll wait till he gets mixed up in the crowd, see him suddenly for the first time, rush up to him in a flutter of delight, call him brother Fred, and give him such a kissing as he hasn't had since he saw his sweetheart last."
"Yes, I would if I were you," said Dora, sarcastically. "You don't dare to, you know."
"Don't I dare to, though? Just wait and see."
And so I dropped back into the cushion in silence, until the train stopped at our station.
Dora gave me a wicked look, and whispered that she knew my courage would fail me, for the gentleman was getting off the train.
I was not to be triumphed over, though, and so, as we stepped out on the platform I saw the literary gentleman standing amid the crowd, and with a little bound threw myself into the arms and kissed him full in the mouth, hysterically exclaiming:
"Fred, my dear brother, how do you do?"
I caught a glimpse of Dora—she was in danger of going into convulsions. I was expecting to hear the stranger say, confusedly, that there was some mistake; but to my surprise he gave me a hearty embrace, kissed me two or three times, said he was well, and that I had grown a great deal, inquired for my little friend Dora, who, all this time was exciting the sympathies of the crowd, as they supposed she was insane, judging from her frantic laughter.

STIPULATIONS WITH ADVERTISERS.
Advertisements ordered for less than one month will be charged fifty cents per square for each insertion after the first. Special notices 15 cents a line for the first insertion, and 10 cents a line for each subsequent insertion. Marriages and deaths inserted gratuitously. Ordinary notices ten cents per line. The privileges extended to annual advertisers will be strictly confined to their own business, and advertisements occupying more space than contracted for, or advertisements foreign to the legitimate business of the contracting parties, will be charged for extra, at our published rates.

No Money—No Marriage.

The times are sadly out of joint. Listen to a popular author on the degeneracy of society: "Everything is now sacrificed to one universal god—gold. The noblest fashions, the finer feelings, domestic and social happiness, are freely laid on the altar of mammon. This is apparent in every-day life. Men or women in the highest circles of society do not marry for love. They have got over that weakness. Marriages de convenance are in vogue. A fashionable mother is blessed with daughters. They attain to the dignity of long dresses and chignons, and enter society. Whatever honorable and natural sentiment developed itself in them soon withers and dies in the unhealthy atmosphere of fashion. They are trotted out for inspection by their shrewd and calculating mammas. Their points are shown off and dilated upon as if they were horses. 'For sale' is printed in unmistakable language on their foreheads. They soon understand the part they must act. The empty-headed scion of a wealthy family is welcomed with nods and becks, and wretched smiles, while the young man, depending for his fortune on his own strong arm, his intellect, his probity, his indomitable resolve to conquer all difficulties, to persevere in spite of the world, the flesh, and the devil, gets the cold shoulder. The qualifications of a husband are perfectly understood. Marriage has been reduced to an exact science. A brown-stone mansion, carriages, a summer residence, a large bank account, and all that cars command, with a top or a minnyhammer of a man thrown in, is all that a young lady cares for now. Future happiness is little thought of in connection with marriage. It is this longing for wealth that has destroyed chivalry. A young man cannot have a chivalrous feeling for his lovely partner in a quadrille, when he knows that she is thinking how much he is worth, or how much his father will leave him, and what probability there is of his father's crossing the dark river soon. Young men have a wholesome fear of mercenary minded women. This fear makes many old bachelors, and a corresponding number of old maids. Female extravagance is characteristic of the times. This is indeed an age of spangles and saw-dust, rings and 'monetary insanity.' Kleptomania and Black Crooks, Aurora Floyd and Monks, Butlers and Brownlows, Hastings and Terrills, Twichells and Grants, Chicagos and New Albanys, velocipedes and Dexters, wigs, feathers, paint and chalk.

THE SPARE BED.—One night a judge, a military officer, and a minister, all applied for a lodging at an inn where there was but one spare bed, and the landlord was called upon to decide which had the best claim of the three.
"I have lain fifteen years in the garrison at —," said the officer.
"I have sat as judge twenty years at R —," said the judge.
"With your leave gentlemen, I have stood in the pulpit twenty-five years at M —," said the minister.
"That settles the dispute," said the landlord. "You, Mr. Captain, have lain fifteen years; you, Mr. Judge have sat twenty years; while this old fellow has been standing up for the last twenty-five years, so he certainly has the best right to the bed."

EARLY HORNS.—It has been suggested that one of the reforms of society in which the female clubs can lend powerful aid, is the observance of early hours at social gatherings, parties, and balls. At public balls, the season for which is now commencing, the dancing does not begin much before ten o'clock, and consequently the evening is prolonged until four or five o'clock in the morning. Hence, on the next day, the participants in what should be an amusing relaxation are entirely unfit for business, or even for the lighter tasks of home. Headaches, general depression, and unstrung nerves are the result of entertainments which become dissipation. After midnight every party-goer should be at home.

TO PARENTS.—Forgot not those two things:

1. To rule well in the family is to rule kindly. Govern your children in such a manner as to make them feel that the law of kindness is in your heart. When it is necessary to punish them, punish them in such a manner as to make them feel that it is because you love them that you correct them.

2. To rule well in a family is to rule wisely. Wisdom is as necessary as kindness in the government and training of a child. Be careful to have good reason for all that you require. Be sure that you have right and truth on your side.

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him."

CASTLES IN THE AIR.—"Chignons."

OFFICE AUDITOR PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.
FRANKFORT, KY., Dec. 31 1868.

To the Commissioner of Tax:

The Court of Appeals, in a decision rendered on the 4th instant, in the case of Barrett, &c., vs. City of Henderson, and City of Henderson vs. Barrett, &c., decided that, "whilst the province remains without manufacture and new value, by reason thereof, by the producer, whether he be a merchant or not, it is not subject to taxation by the general revenue act recited [act of March, 8th, 1851.] it being among the excluded articles; but when it is manufactured by the purchaser, and new value added to it, for the purpose of resale in the domestic or foreign markets, it becomes an article of merchandise, not within the exclusion of section 16 of said act of March 8th, and the dealer so far becomes a merchant of that article. The miller, tobacco manufacturer, and the stevedore, therefore, so far as they may have such manufactured articles on hand, on the day designated in such act (10th of April,) and which are legally deemed merchants, and liable to assessment therefor, because such articles are no longer within the exclusion of the fifteenth section." The court also decided, in the same cases, that money, chosen in action, deposits, &c., held in other States or countries by citizens of Kentucky, are subject to taxation under our laws, and must be so assessed, unless the assessor, has some evidence that they are taxed in the State or country in which they are situated. It becomes the duty of the Auditor, as a matter of consequence, under the rulings of our highest tribunal, to issue the following instructions to county assessors: Tobacco, manufactured or stemmed; corn, wheat, rye, barley, or other grains manufactured into meal, flour, distilled spirits, or made into malt liquors; hemp made into bagging, rope, twine, or cloth; hides or skins tanned into shoes, boots, brilles harness, or other things; and all other articles raised or produced by the producer, and sold by him, and subsequently prepared for resale by the purchaser, must be assessed by the County Assessor for taxation under the head of merchandise. It is also the duty of assessors to assess for taxation, under the equalization law, all money, chosen in action, deposits, &c., held and owned by citizens of this State, in other States or countries, unless she have some evidence that such money, chosen in action, deposits, &c., are taxed in the State or country where they are held. The basis of valuation in each and all of the foregoing articles will be, as in the case of other articles of property, the gold basis. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
D. HOWARD SMITH, Auditor.

THIRSTING FOR MORE LAND.—One of the most grievous errors of the past and present generation of American farmers is the almost insatiable thirst for more land. Not one in a thousand, though possessed of five times as many acres as he can profitably or successfully till, is satisfied. While this is perfectly natural, it is at the same time very unwise. The farmer recognizes his wealth in the multiplication of his broad acres, just as the merchant or banker does in the accumulation of Greenbacks, but the difference between the two is, that the farmer may add acre to acre, without the ability to render the investment productive, while the merchant or banker has no difficulty in finding profitable investments for his greenbacks. It is always a bad policy to buy more land, and give manure in homeopathic doses to that already in possession.
The safe and sure guide for the farmer is to attempt the cultivation of no more acres than he can keep in perfect good order, and every day's experience demonstrates the fact that, with occasional exceptions, a little farm well tilled is more profitable in the end than a large one indifferently cultivated. We once read the story of a Frenchman who had two daughters. One of them married, and received half of the paternal vineyard as her dowry. To the old man's surprise the half he had reserved, receiving as much cultivation as he formerly bestowed on the whole, yielded as much as the whole had. The second married, and he gave her one half of what he had left, and still had as many grapes from his remaining fourth, as he used to get from the whole. There is a whole volume of practical truth in this little anecdote. Its moral is: attempt the cultivation of no more land than you can cultivate well.—Journal of the Farm.

A TALL FELLOW.—standing in the pit of a theatre, was repeatedly desired to sit down, but would not, when a voice from the upper gallery called out, "Let him alone; he's a tailor, and he's resting himself."

WHY, WHY?—said the gentleman.
"That you should call on a Bear to sing when you have two Birds in the company."

MR. BEAR was at a public dinner, two gentlemen of the name of Bird being in the company. After the cloth was removed, Mr. Bear, who was a good singer was called on to oblige the company with a song. He immediately arose, and said: "Gentlemen your conduct on this occasion is so highly improper that I cannot help noticing it."
"Why, why?" said the gentlemen.
"That you should call on a Bear to sing when you have two Birds in the company."

KENTUCKY SENTINEL.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING BY
WILL T. HANLY,
AT $2 50 PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, KY.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1869.

Governor's Messages.

The message of the Governor is a document of considerable interest. It is well and in many places eloquently written, and is a comprehensive and luminous survey of all the interests of the State. Its whole tone and expression are statesman-like. Its discussions are exhaustive and its recommendations wise, well-weighed, and judicious.

The financial affairs of the commonwealth, are represented to be in the most satisfactory condition. Our State indebtedness amounts to only about eight hundred thousand dollars and to liquidate it, we have bank stocks, railroad and turnpike stocks more than sufficient to pay it off. The Governor recommends that all of the State bonds, whether matured or not, be paid off as fast as they are presented.

A complete and thorough reform in the mode of assessing and collecting the revenue is advised, and also the enactment of a law affixing a penalty on taxes overdue. The practice of granting legislative indulgence to delinquent sheriffs is condemned as unwise and pernicious.

The attention of the Legislature is specially directed to the operation of the Civil Rights Bill in Kentucky. It claims and asserts jurisdiction over the people of Kentucky and citizens under its operation, are taken from the custody of the State authorities which have cognizance and jurisdiction of the offences and hurried away, under coercive process to Louisville and Covington. The District Court of Kentucky has held the act to be Constitutional while the most eminent lawyers in the land hold that it is plainly a violation of the Constitution and an unwarranted usurpation of the rights of the States. Gov. Stevenson recommends that the Legislature provide for the decision of the question by the Supreme Court. The settlement of no question at this juncture, more intimately concerns the interests of Kentucky.

The establishment of a house of reform for youthful offenders is advised and the necessity for it pointed out with great force and clearness.

The labor question is also pressed upon the Legislature. Gov. Stevenson's views on the subject of supplying lost slave labor by the encouragement of foreign immigration, are well-worthy of serious consideration by the Legislature. No subject can so profitably engage their minds.

The message touches upon every topic of general importance to the State and indicates a line of policy at once wise and practicable.

The Legislature is an able, working, body and will doubtless avail themselves of the Governor's suggestions and reduce his views to such laws as are most conducive to the welfare and prosperity of the Commonwealth.

Radical Infidelity.

A few months since, Thaddeus Stevens was the head and front of the Radical party. His eminent talents and fine genius were known and felt by all shades of political opinion; yet we are told that during all his life, he openly scoffed at the Christian religion. We remember that a few months before his death, and when even then he was tottering on the grave, he gave utterance to the following sentiment, not in the heat of debate, but in a printed speech, in speaking of President Johnson and his attempted removal of Stanton:—"Blessed be the betrayal by Julius Caesar, who betrayed only a single individual, Johnson sacrificed a whole nation and the holiest of principles."

A few years since, in Congress, on a motion to postpone a vote on the Civil Rights Bill after the veto, on account of the illness of Senator Wright, Ben Wade said "I will tell the President and everybody else that if God Almighty has stricken one member so that he cannot be here to uphold the dictation of a despot, I thank him for his interposition, and will take advantage of it if I can."

Karl Schurz, now a prominent candidate for United States Senator in Missouri, in a speech a few years since spoke of the Savior as "the ideal gentleman beyond the skies called by some people God."

Burlingame, the big John Chinaman, was the author of the infamous sentiment, "I would have judges who believe in a higher law, and an anti-slavery Constitution, an anti-slavery Bible and an anti-slavery God."

It has been well said that the gods of Radicalism are all profane. Witness Stevens saying that "the Bible is of no authority and is nothing but the obsolete history of a barbarous people," and calling Christ "that single individual." Wade with his mouth stuffed with abuses of the Almighty name, and Schurz flouting his blasphemy and infidelity, as a mark of his German genius. The divinities of Radicalism shock the religious sense of the people. Radicalism in its last analysis is infidelity to man and God.

The negroes of Fayette county have held a meeting, and it was resolved that they would fill contracts made with farmers, and endeavor to induce all members of their race to do likewise.

New England.

We deprecate that spirit that is always abusing and finding fault with one section of the Union; but there can be no concealment of the fact that the Federal government as it now stands is largely managed for the benefit of the Parian States. They have all together a very small area of territory compared to the other States, and yet have two Senators each in Congress. All the important Committees in both Houses are controlled by New England men. The tariff is for the benefit of New England. The National banking system which allows them to draw gold interest on their bonds, and gives them ninety per cent of notes for loan and circulation, is for the benefit of New England.

The population of the United States is estimated at forty millions. New England has about four millions. The amount of bank circulation is three hundred millions, and of this amount New England has one hundred and four millions—more than one third, while her population is only one tenth.

This preponderance of capital gives New England immense advantages. It enables her to control the markets of the United States, to monopolize trade, to raise and lower prices at her pleasure, to keep up the prices of manufactures so as to make immense dividends to all her corporations and to form combinations and rings against the general commercial interests of the whole country. In the better days of the Republic, each State provided its own banking capital and managed its own moneyed affairs. The State banks are now destroyed, and in their place is substituted the national banking system which allows New England the lion's share of the subsidy, she having one hundred and four millions, while all the other States combined have but one hundred and ninety-six millions. This unjust and unequal apportionment renders New England almost omnipotent. She controls trade, influences legislation, buys corporations and dictates the policy of the nation. When national legislation is for the benefit of one section at the expense of another, it becomes a nuisance which the other sections should have speedy destruction.

Whitewashing.

Recently complaints went to Army Headquarters at Washington of the lawless proceedings of Clayton's sculawag and negro militia in the State of Arkansas. Fortwith Gens. (?) Porter (rejoicing in the classic name of Horace) and Babcock, were sent to investigate the state of affairs and report. They went to Little Rock and saw Gov. Clayton. They hobnobbed with him. They have reported, and judging from the amount of information in the sketch furnished and the character of it, it seems that the envoys must have confided to the Governor the preparation of the report. We are furnished with a beautiful picture of the Governor's mercy in holding back his cut-throats until after the Presidential election. Then comes a long summary of the Governor's arguments for calling out his militia and the reasons for his preference of the marauders to the regular troops. We are told that the United States soldiers do not know the people; that the rebels are anxious to have them because of the expenditure of money with them.

The report says the militia has been under "tolerable good control." So were Kirk's Lambs." So were alva's Spaniards. There is a lame and reluctant admission that the Governor's policy has seriously interfered with the public business in the counties where martial law has been proclaimed. Killing, burning, hanging, marauding, stealing, total insecurity of life and property, rape and robbery are slight impediments to the public business.

The ambassadors to the Court of His Highness Clayton think his policy is wise and has accomplished more good than the short sighted Gen. Smith supposed. The bowels of Clayton, we learn, yearn for his dear people and when there is nothing left to steal, he graciously promises to call in his "dogs of war."

The report may be summed up in one word. "Gov. Clayton is a man of intelligence and nerve; the people are all rebels and it is more convenient to plunder them with needy militia, officered by adventurers than by regular troops who would perhaps decline to do such work. "Let us have peace."

The New York Times says the whole country wants to see Grant enter, at his accession, upon a bold, resolute and determined crusade against the government, and the bolder and more resolute he makes it, the more completely will he be supported. The Tenure-of-Office bill ought to be repealed, and Grant should be left entirely free to undertake and execute such form in the civil service as it may require. If Congress sees the wisdom of making good behavior the sole tenure of office, let it adopt Jencks' Civil Service bill; but until some general provisions of this sort are adopted, Grant should have full power over appointments and removals, which the Constitution gives him.

Mr. Mike Ryan, a capitalist of large experience in the coal business, has recently made an investigation of many of the coal beds in the vicinity of Louisa with the view of working them.

The Results of the War.

The civil war abolished slavery. The firing of the first gun doomed it to inevitable destruction. The apostles of abolitionism who brought on the conflict by years of bitter agitation culminating at last in the election of an avowed abolitionist as President, did not hate slavery. They did not love the slave. Human bondage was not the thing that disturbed them. It was the hatred towards the Southern people and the unexampled prosperity they enjoyed. With slavery the South grew rich and was a sine of power in the Federal body. She was never so brutalized by slavery that her sons ceased to be eloquent champions of Constitutional liberty. But to the past these matters belong. Slavery is dead and nobody wishes to re-establish it.

In its place, we have many evils. If the war blotted out one slavery, it gave birth to others. We have now, throughout the Union, an oligarchy more to be dreaded than the so-called aristocracy of slavery. It is the money power. In its hands all the powers of the Federal and State governments are fast centering. Even now its baleful influence is felt on all classes of society. It can make Presidents, Governors and Legislatures. It can control railroads, banks and corporations. It monopolizes products, owns industry and holds trade in the hollow of its hand. For it, laws are made, tariffs laid, taxes raised, and legislation directed. In a few years, the great money power will have crushed out the very form of free government.

The war has also produced the overthrow of States, and the destruction of their local self-government. Following in its wake have come wholesale slaughter and devastation, the wasting of the public resources and oppressive taxation and enormous debt.

Nor is this all. Wide spread personal and social demoralization has fallen upon our land and smitten it as with pestilence. "Licentiousness, intemperance, gambling, thieving, fraud, embezzlement, frivolity, extravagance and vice in every form have been multiplied an hundred fold by the license, examples, opportunities, temptation and contamination of the war. They pervade the whole fabric of society and are undermining its very foundations. Not slavery during its centuries of existence in this country, produced a hundredth part of the evils nor would it have done so had it continued.

"To the last syllable of recorded time," that can be directly traced to the war in the little more than seven years that have elapsed since its commencement."

We have just learned that Col. Zeigler has served a notice upon John M. Rice announcing his intention to contest the right of the latter to a seat in Congress to which he was elected by a majority of more than three thousand of the votes of the people. Col. Zeigler does not claim to have received a majority of the legal votes of this District, but alleges that John M. Rice is disqualified by the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution by reason of having giving aid and comfort to the armed enemies of the United States, Rice having before the war been a member of the Kentucky Legislature. Zeigler claims that, by reason of this alleged disqualification, all the votes cast for Rice were illegal and null from the beginning, and that only the votes cast by himself are legal and ought to be counted by Congress. Thus, he contends, not only that John M. Rice is not entitled to the seat by reason of the alleged disqualification, but that he, Zeigler, is entitled to it because of the illegality of the votes cast for a disqualified person.

We also understand that M. Rice feels confident of his own ability to establish his right to, and to secure, the seat to which he was elected by the people, and will spare no pains to vindicate his own claims and the rights of the people. He was never guilty of treason, or any act which would work disqualification under the Amendment or the statute of Congress. We are satisfied that no case can be made out against Mr. Rice by any sane juried witnesses. Even the Radicals are becoming disgusted at these claims to admission by men whom the people have repudiated, and it is not at all probable that they will be as ready to listen to Willis Hockaday's, Spotswood Deadmans and Nichols, as they were when McKee contested the seat of John D. Young. Of course nothing mean in this District could come off without the connivance of McKee, and we learn, that he drew up the notice and forwarded it to Zeigler.

Even though the latter may obtain perjured testimony sufficient to afford the Radicals a pretext for ousting Rice, it is not probable he will himself be benefited by the result. He will not be able to throw out the votes given for Rice, on the score of the disloyalty of the voters or of the judges, as was done in the former disgraceful contest. And the Committee on Elections in the case of Smith vs. John Young Brown reported that they would not regard the claim, that the person receiving a seat because of the illegibility of the person receiving the majority, unless that illegibility had been clearly established, and was known to the voters at the time of the election. It is sufficient to say that no such case was established against John M. Rice, nor is it at all probable that one can be so established. Under such a ruling Zeigler could not get the seat even in case Rice should be excluded, which we do not anticipate. —Monticello Eagle.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky State Agricultural Society will be held in the city of Frankfort, on the third Wednesday (20th) of this month. As business of great importance will be presented for the consideration of the society, it is hoped that every portion of the State will be fully represented.

FURNITURE.
J. W. Patterson,
Manufacturer & Importer of
FURNITURE,
LEXINGTON, KY.
WISHES to inform his friends and the public that he has on hand
A large stock of Furniture,
The most of which is of his own manufacture, which he will sell on as reasonable terms as any house in the city. [Jan. 7-3m.]

Notice to Trespassers.
ALL persons are hereby prohibited from hunting, fishing, passing through, or otherwise trespassing upon any of our lands lying in Montgomery county. All persons violating this will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.
JESSE YATES. JAS. BROOKS.
R. C. GATEWOOD. M. R. EVERITT.
MARY GLOVER. JOS. EVANS.

N. E.—Persons passing through our places on the new pike to Howard's Mill will be considered trespassers, as said road has been closed.
JESSE YATES. JAS. BROOKS.
R. C. GATEWOOD. MARY GLOVER.
Jan. 7-3w.

A Happy Conception.

We understand, says the Baltimore Gazette, that "The History of American Battles," soon to be published, contains some most cruel narratives of cruelty and wrong, that would disgrace the annals of the Inquisition. It is being prepared under the careful superintendence of John A. Marshall, Esq., of Philadelphia, and Mr. Wells, of this State, and will be dedicated to General Ulysses S. Grant, with the earnest hope that this record of wrong and outrage by one of his predecessors will intensify his zeal in behalf of the constitutional rights of the citizens under the Constitution. The front-piece will be ornamented with two bells—the first a steel engraving of the bell of Independence Hall, with its time-honored inscription—"Proclaim Liberty to all the Land" Over it the sentence—"This was the Bell of 1776."

Over it smaller engraving of that "little bell of Seward's with a hand reaching forth from the murky clouds of despotism toward it, and beneath Seward's speech to Lord Lyons: "I can touch a bell on my right hand, my Lord, and arrest a citizen of New York; on my left, and arrest a citizen of Ohio. Can your mistress, the Queen, do more?" The work will also contain three steel engravings, of forts Lafayette and Warren, and of the Old Capitol Prison.

Wm. Owsley Goodloe, Esq., has purchased the Kentucky Statesman, at Lexington, and proposes to go into the newspaper business for life. Mr. Goodloe is the well-known "Kentucky Contributor" of the Cincinnati Gazette. We wish he may have abundant success in all save his politics.

New Advertisements.

MASONIC.
Montgomery Lodge, No. 23.—Stated meetings on the 2d and 4th Saturday nights in each month.
THOS. METCALFE, W. M.
T. H. SCHMERS, Sec'y.
Mount Hope R. A. Chapter, No. 21.—Stated meetings on the 1st Friday in each month, at 2 o'clock, p. m.
J. M. CLYDE, H. P.
G. E. MILLER, Sec'y.

DISSOLUTION.
THE firm of B. F. Berkley & Co. has been dissolved by Mr. Wm. H. Wilkerson retaining. The business will hereafter be conducted by Berkley & White. All persons indebted to the old firm must come forward and settle their indebtedness without delay, as its business must be wound up immediately.
Jan. 14. B. F. BERKLEY & CO.

READ THIS!

I OFFER for sale at public outcry, to the highest bidder, on Saturday, January 23, 1869,
MY RESIDENCE!

In Mt. Sterling, Ky. It is beautifully located on Main Street, and is very convenient; the house contains 7 Rooms, Nice Hall, Good Cellar

KITCHEN, with room above, Cabin and Smoke house. At the kitchen door is An Elegant Cistern,

With a vein, which cost $500, and I believe contains the
BEST WATER IN THE STATE,
And is never-failing. There is in the cistern an elegant New Pump. The walks are paved. My lot runs through from Main to High Street, with an entrance from either. There is an EXCELLENT GARDEN!

Picked. Very fine young fruit trees, bearing, Nis Grapes, &c. I have upon the lot a good stable and buggy house. The fencing on either side and upper part of the lot is good, and in front there is an IRON FENCE,

Which cost $400. My property is in good condition, and is very desirable. There are two good store rooms, and bath room adjoining the cistern. I will also on the same day, sell
All of My Furniture!

Which is good and new. Some of it very nice. The sale will begin at 10 o'clock, and is positive and without reserve. Possession given 15th April.
TERMS—Everything over $20 to be paid on the 15th of March; under that amount cash.
J. M. CRAWFORD.

Jan. 14-2w.
L. D. Wilson, Auctioneer.

$100 REWARD

ROLEN from the subscriber living near North Middletown, Ky., on the night of December 24,

ONE BLACK HORSE,
Four years old next spring, about 15 1/2 hands high, right hind foot white, star in forehead, and rides lame in left fore foot.
I will give the above reward for horse and driver, or for horse found in Bourbon county, or $50 if found outside of Bourbon, and delivered to me.
HARVEY KERR.
Jan. 14-2w.—ch Kentuckyian.

FURNITURE.

J. W. Patterson,
Manufacturer & Importer of
FURNITURE,
LEXINGTON, KY.

WISHES to inform his friends and the public that he has on hand
A large stock of Furniture,
The most of which is of his own manufacture, which he will sell on as reasonable terms as any house in the city. [Jan. 7-3m.]

Notice to Trespassers.
ALL persons are hereby prohibited from hunting, fishing, passing through, or otherwise trespassing upon any of our lands lying in Montgomery county. All persons violating this will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.
JESSE YATES. JAS. BROOKS.
R. C. GATEWOOD. M. R. EVERITT.
MARY GLOVER. JOS. EVANS.

N. E.—Persons passing through our places on the new pike to Howard's Mill will be considered trespassers, as said road has been closed.
JESSE YATES. JAS. BROOKS.
R. C. GATEWOOD. MARY GLOVER.
Jan. 7-3w.

New Advertisements.

To Our Patrons.

HAVING sold our stock of Clothing and Gent's Furnishing Goods to Mr. Wm. H. Wilkerson, formerly of the firm of B. F. Berkley & Co., it gives us pleasure to recommend him to the patrons of the house and the public generally as a gentleman in every way worthy of their patronage, and we hope the same liberal patronage that has heretofore been bestowed upon us will be extended to the new proprietor.
Respectfully,
FRANK GUMP & CO.

In referring to the above card of Messrs. Frank Gump & Co., I would announce to the people of Montgomery and the adjoining counties that I have now on hand a

LARGE AND COMPLETE STOCK

—OF—
READY-MADE CLOTHING,

Latest & Most Fashionable Styles!
And manufactured from the Best of Goods.

My stock of Gent's Furnishing Goods!

Is large, and in
PRICE AND QUALITY

Will compare favorably with any house in this section of the State.
I have also on hand a GOOD STOCK of WOOL & SOFT FUR HATS

Which will be
SOLD LOW DOWN!

In returning thanks to my friends in this and the adjoining counties who have heretofore given me their patronage whilst in the Dry Goods business, I would announce that it is my intention to keep a large and complete stock of Goods in my line, and that I will make it to their advantage to buy their Clothing and Furnishing Goods of me.
Respectfully,
WM. H. WILKERSON.

Jan. 14-4f.

GOOD HEALTH

Is paramount to wealth. If the system is in bad order, the mind is troubled and dispirited with Roback's Blood Bitters, and get the internal organs performing their regular functions, and once in order, keep them so by the daily use of Roback's Stomach Bitters. Breen & Young, Agents.

DYSPEPSIA.

There is, probably, no one disease with which mankind are afflicted which is the source of so many ailments as Dyspepsia; and there is no more certain cure than Roback's Stomach Bitters. Breen & Young, Agents.

A REMARKABLE FACT

That not a single instance has come to the knowledge of the proprietors, of the failure of Roback's Medicine to give entire satisfaction in the hundreds of thousands of cases in which they have been used; this is worthy of remark and undeniable evidence of their intrinsic merits. Breen & Young, Agents.

SMALL ADVANCE

—ON—
Cincinnati Prices.
Dec. 27.

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

—WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A

CONDITION

Exchange Bank of Kentucky,

On the 1st day of January, 1869.

RESOURCES.

Notes and Bills of Exchange	$85,070 20
Due from Banks	20,571 88
Revenue Stamps	82 13
Real Estate	2,600 00
Office Furniture and Safe	1,400 00
Protest account	8 34
Bank Stock	8,770 00
Cash on hand—National Bank and Treasury Notes	12,905 92
Gold and Silver	398 89
Total	$131,207 36

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock	$50,000 00
Individual Deposits	69,999 94
Deposit Certificates	3,425 55
Profit and Loss	5,482 84
Due to Banks	1,705 88
Fund to pay U. S. Taxes	552 65
Total	$131,207 36

Profit and Loss as above $5,482 84
Less Dividend No. 6 of 5 per cent free from Government Tax 2,500 00
Leaves Surplus this day $2,982 84

From and after this day this bank will furnish its customers with Checks, Stamped, free of charge
January 7-4w.
WM. HOFFMAN, Cashier.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.,
PRACTICAL AND ANALYTICAL CHEMISTS,
LOWELL, MASS.

PRICE $1.00.
J. T. BREEN, Sole Agent, Mt. Sterling, Ky.
ALLEN & CO., Cincinnati, Wholesale Agents.
May 14-ly.

M. J. CHASE. R. H. DIMMITT. H. H. COE, JR.

KENTUCKY

Planing and Flooring Mill,
DOOR, SASH & BLIND FACTORY.

CHASE, DIMMITT & COLLINS,
Manufacturers of all kinds of
BUILDING MATERIAL.
Shaved and Sawed Shingles, Fencing,
Fence Posts, Palings, Mouldings,
Lath, Pine and Poplar Lumber,
Planed and Rough.

CORNER SECOND AND POPULAR STREETS,
(NORTH WARD.)
MAYSVILLE, KY.

W. S. MOORES, M. D.,
Resident Dentist,
OWINGSVILLE, BATH CO., KY.

RESPECTFULLY tenders his services to the people of Montgomery county as an experienced and skillful Dentist of twelve years standing. He feels that he has peculiar and strong claims upon them for their patronage by reason of an advantage rarely enjoyed by Dentists. Having attended a thorough course of clinical lectures, he is under no necessity when administering laughing gas or chloroform of calling in a Physician, thereby incurring an additional expense. Such has been the marked success that he has met with in extracting teeth that his practice has extended over the greater portion of Fleming and Bath counties. He uses in the extraction of teeth all the Modern Anesthesia known to dentistry. Those who are desirous of having teeth extracted without pain would do well to engage his services. All Work Warranted.

TESTIMONIALS:
I have been under the necessity of twenty-five years dentist's care, and regard Dr. W. S. Moores as the most efficient with whom I have met.
J. A. J. LEE.
July 20, 1868.

I have had some work done by Dr. Moores, and consider him well skilled in his profession.
J. H. RICHART.
References.—Dr. Wills, M. D., Dr. Marry, M. D., Dr. Biggerstaff, M. D., J. M. Nesbitt, Wm. Phelps, Henry L. Stone, and M. R. Lockhart, Bath county; Col. Thos. Turner, Nim. Byrd, Dr. Phillips, Dr. Edward Guernant, Wm. Daley, Montgomery county.
[July 23-y.]

Hats! Hats! Hats!!!

BONNETS, FEATHERS, FLOWERS,
EMBOIDERY, CHINESE, SILK, AND FLOSS
Just received, and selling at holiday prices, at
MISS DAVIS'S,
Directly opposite the New Church.
Dec. 3.

DRIVERS, ATTENTION.

The office of the SENTINEL has been removed to the room on Main Street over Breen's drug store, formerly occupied by the Odd Fellows as a lodge room. Persons having business with us will find our location more convenient than heretofore.

Our paper is issued one day in advance of regular publication day this week. The editor wishing to attend the press Convention at Frankfort, we were compelled to do this in order for him to be off in time.

Next Monday is county court day.

We had a large edition of the "beautiful snow" on Sunday night.

John Minor Batts, of Virginia, died on Friday last.

See advertisement of stolen horse in another column.

Hoffman & Co. have on hand a lot of Miller's celebrated plows, which they will sell at Cincinnati list prices.

Messrs. B. F. Berkley & Co. have a very important notice in our advertising columns this week. Read it.

R. T. Smith will rent to the highest bidder, on Thursday, 21st inst., at 2 o'clock, several Storehouses and offices on Main street.

Mr. C. C. Hale, in a well written valedictory in the Carlisle Mercury of this week, retires from the editorial management of that paper.

Samuels & Jordan have received another lot of beautiful tins, equal in all respects to the other lots they have sold this season. Give them a trial.

Mr. Thomas Calk, of this county, sold four fat cattle on Wednesday of last week, at eight cents per pound. The four weighed 8,570 pounds, and brought the nice sum of $685 60.

We are told that Mr. Tenny, the contractor, will begin work on our court house early in the spring. The Major's well-known energy insures a speedy completion of the work.

RESIDENCE FOR SALE.—J. M. Crawford, Esq., will offer for sale publicly on the 23d inst., his beautiful residence in this town. This is one of the most desirable residences in the town—has all the modern conveniences, and is pleasantly located. See advertisement in another column.

Our young and clever friend Henry Jones, of the firm of Chiles & Jones, returned on Friday evening last from Cincinnati, where he has been to lay in another stock of groceries for his house. It gives us pleasure to announce that this firm is doing a thriving business. Success to them.

Gen. Rousseau, commandant of the fifth military district, died in New Orleans on Thursday night last. He was a native of Kentucky, and was about fifty years old. He was one of the most popular and successful generals of the late war.

We are in receipt of the Daily Frankfort Freeman. It reports the proceedings of the Legislature and the decisions of the Court of Appeals in full every day. Persons wishing to keep posted with our legislative body should subscribe at once. Terms $2 for the session.

IN TOWN.—Hon. L. T. Moore, of Catlettsburg, was in our town for a day or so last week. He is in the enjoyment of excellent health, and looks about as he did when he made the memorable race for Congress in 1850, against Hon. J. W. Moore. This is his first visit to our town since that canvass. We hope his visits will be more frequent in the future.

We would call the attention of the various insurance agents of our town to the insurance laws of our State. The law says they shall publish the statements of their companies every six months, in a paper of general circulation in the county, where such agencies are located. Remember this, gentlemen.

LOUISVILLE EVENING SUN.—We have received several copies of the above neatly printed and well-filled paper. As its name indicates it is an evening paper. It is edited with ability by Chas. D. Kirk, and E. M. Summers, Esqs. We wish the new candidate for public favor, length of days in the land. If the people of Louisville would consult their own interest they would extend to it a good patronage.

NEW MUSIC.—We have received from D. P. Pauls, No. 70, Main Street, Louisville, the following new music:

"Capitola Schottische"—composed by Mrs. Hettie Shively Austin. Price 35 cents.

"Pretty Jemima"—a comic piece—by J. Hall. Price 35 cents.

Sent on receipt of price, by addressing as above.

The Benefits of Advertising.

The shrewdest business men the world over, have availed themselves of the facilities offered by the press for placing their business fully and explicitly before the public. The result has been, without exception largely to their advantage. Indeed a large successful business can hardly be conducted now without frequent communication with the public through liberal advertisements. We do not think any man will dispute this proposition. The following statement by an old advertising agent, is just in point:

To the Editor of Cincinnati Chronicle: The necessity of a thorough and judicious system of advertising was never so forcibly impressed upon my mind as it has been within the past few weeks, although I have studied advertising closely for eighteen years.

With my customers those that have advertised largely and have not curtailed the amount of their advertising through this stringency of our money market, have, to my surprise, paid up in full promptly as accounts became due, but not so with those that have curtailed and advertised sparingly; they find it difficult to settle small accounts.

S. H. PARVIN,
Pioneer Advertising Agent.

It will be seen by reference to an advertisement in another column, that Messrs. Frank Gump & Co., have disposed of their stock of Clothing and gentlemen's goods to Mr. Wm. H. Willerson formerly of the firm of B. F. Berkley & Co., of this town. Mr. Willerson is well known to most of our people as a thorough business man. He informs us that it is his intention to keep up a good stock of goods in his line, and to sell them at reasonable profits. As Mr. W. is so well known in this community, anything in commendation of him from us would be superfluous. We hope our readers in need of anything in his line will give him a call, as it is his intention to try to please all.

[From the Farmers Home Journal.]
State Aid.

The Legislature is now in session and it is hoped that the members, fresh from their constituents, have come together with broad and liberal views, prepared to be guided in their legislation by a spirit of enlightened devotion to the interests of the whole State. Among the many important matters to be brought before this body, there will be no subject more vitally important to our people, none more nearly related to the future growth and prosperity of our State, than that of the judicious development of our vast natural resources. We have stood still while younger States have far outstripped us, and the conviction is now general, that if Kentucky is to make any considerable advance in wealth and population, the impulse must be given by the development of our untrapped mineral and manufacturing resources. We have boundless wealth within our limits, but year after year, we will grow poorer unless we take steps to make those treasures available. Every season we are depleting our purse, and weakening ourselves by sending millions of dollars to Michigan and Wisconsin for lumber, to Pennsylvania for coal, to Missouri for lead, and elsewhere for other needed articles; when here, within our own borders, in regions where land is now regarded as valueless, we have inexhaustible supplies of iron, coal, salt, lumber and building stone.

Individual enterprise is not competent to a work of such magnitude as the opening up of these hidden stores, and if the annual outlay allotted to it is ever stopped, if our mineral regions are ever populated by hardy, active, industrious men; if speedy and safe transportation for the wealth of these mountainous sections to the waiting markets is ever furnished; if the vast stretches of land now comparatively worthless are ever brought under profitable cultivation and if furnaces and manufactories giving employment to thousands of skilled operatives, are ever established in the Eastern and other portions of our State, then the Legislature, acting on the wise principle, that the prosperity of one section will redound to the prosperity of the whole State, must lend efficient aid to such improvements as promise to contribute materially to the development of our resources. We are persuaded that time will show it to be a mistaken economy to refuse aid to important works of this kind. We have carefully observed the course pursued by other States in reference to this question, and no instance can be pointed out in which any other than desired results followed. We are now essentially an agricultural people, but there is no reason why we should not become as wisely known for our Manufactories and mines, since Heaven has blessed our State with such abundance of resources requisite for the successful prosecution of these important branches.

We will not pretend to elaborate these views, or to produce arguments in their defense, as the members of the Legislature are thoroughly informed in relation to this, as well as all other subjects that will probably be brought before them, but occupying a position independent of political parties, as representative of our great agricultural and mechanical interests, and interested in the welfare of the whole state, we have felt it to be our duty to present these suggestions. The time has now arrived when Kentucky must take a long step forward, or be content to fall still lower in the rank of states. Then, when the means are in our hands to attain wealth, population, and power, certainly we will be held accountable for persistently refusing to avail ourselves of them. From the high character for intelligence, public spirit and state pride, of the members of the present General Assembly, we feel confident that this subject will receive favorable consideration, and we are the more confident, when we reflect, that the necessary outlay upon the part of the state to accomplish these desired results, will be attended with but comparatively little risk.

Edna built one hundred and sixty houses last year.

A Presidential Palace.

It is proposed to build a Presidential Palace worthy of the nation, and to increase the salary of the President to $100,000 per annum. If we were a citizen of the United States, and had any right to say anything about it, we would say, by all means do it. There isn't a petty prince in all Europe so meanly housed, while millions on millions have been expended in providing suitable residences for each of the monarchs of the great European powers; and there is scarcely a revenue collector, or a tax assessor, or a port-surveyor, or a store keeper, in the government whose perquisites do not foot up two or three times the President's pay. Moreover, what the office has lost in dignity and honor should be made up in pay. If the President is stripped of his constitutional power, he should at least be a respectable figure-head of the nation.—Selma (Ala.) Times.

To My Customers.—I would respectfully announce to those ladies who have bought goods from me on credit, that I am in great need at the present time of the amounts they owe, and I hope they will call and settle their little bills, as it is really necessary for me to collect what money I have outstanding to enable me to pay my debts.

Respectfully,
MRS. HORTON.

The vast amount of Plantation Bitters now being sold and shipped from New York is almost incredible. Go when and where you will—along the wharves and piers, and at the depots—you will see great piles of these Bitters awaiting shipment and conveyance to every nook and corner of the country, and to the hundreds of foreign ports. They are very popular among all classes of people, and are considered to be just the thing for this climate. No Bitters have yet been introduced which have become so deservedly popular and worthy of patronage, to all who require a tonic and stimulant. They are prepared with pure St. Croix Rum, Calisaya and Cascarilla Bark, and all the world knows full well what beneficial results accrue from these combinations.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, of Tuesday last, says: The Radicals of Kentucky are divided on the question of Congress removing the disabilities of ex-Confederates who are now holding office in that State, and without which removal those disqualified under the fourteenth constitutional amendment must vacate.

Gen. Burbridge, Gov. Dr. Breckinridge, and other prominent Radicals, are in favor of clemency, and have signed the petitions of several persons of this class who are now here to solicit the action of Congress in their behalf, but it is understood Judge Goodloe and others of his intense school of Radicalism, have forwarded remonstrances against the prayer of the petitioners.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Exuberant Health
Is a blessing vouchsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve these precious endowments. Indeed, as a rule, the more healthy and robust a man is, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up, by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life and exemption from disease and pain than the most athletic of their fellows who are foolish enough to suppress themselves involuntarily, and act accordingly.

It is not too much to say that more than half the people of the civilized world need an occasional tonic to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of the restless age occasions. In fact a pure, wholesome, unexciting tonic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions, and they have the article in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. It is a STAMINAL MEDICINE, it is a permanent strength to weak systems and invigorates delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased. Competitive preparations have been introduced ad libitum, and as far as the public is concerned, ad nauseum, in the hope of rivaling it; but they have all either perished in the attempt, or been left far in the rear. It has been the GREAT MEDICAL SUCCESS OF THE PRESENT CENTURY, and its quite certain that no proprietary medicine in this country is as widely known, or as generally used.

Ten lightning presses, running incessantly (Sundays excepted), the whole year through, barely supply the demand for the Illustrated Almanac, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth, the circulation now being over five millions a year.

NATIONAL HOTEL

Mount Sterling, Ky.

WM. S. THOMAS, - Proprietor.

I would call the attention of the public to this house, which I have at considerable expense, fitted up in elegant style, and is now open for the reception of guests. The rooms comfortable, furnished with new and elegant furniture, with polite and attentive attendants, I will guarantee satisfaction to all who favor me with their patronage. I feel fully sustained in the assertion, that it is one of the best appointed hotels in Eastern Kentucky.

Very respectfully,
W. S. THOMAS.

JOB WORK

NEATLY EXECUTED
AT THE SENTINEL OFFICE.

Our New Family

Sewing Machine.

THE SUPERIOR MERITS of the "Singer" Machine over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellencies is no longer considered necessary.

NEW FAMILY MACHINE.

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the BEST SEWING MACHINE IN EXISTENCE.

The Machine in question is SIMPLE, COMFORTABLE, DURABLE AND BEAUTIFUL. It is quiet, light running, and CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK

never before attempted upon a single Machine, using either Silk, Twist, Linen or Cotton Thread, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and any other of the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel, Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at least be conveyed through the medium of a necessarily limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branch agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. Or communications may be addressed to

The Singer Manufacturing Co.

468 Broadway, New York.

We refer to the following persons who have been using the New Family Machines for some time past, and the most of whom have had sewing machine experience. Mrs. H. Jones, Miss M. Smith, Miss M. Voria, Mrs. T. Clark, Mrs. I. F. Calk, Mrs. Tipton, Misses Burroughs, Mrs. G. E. Miller, Mrs. W. T. Howe, Mrs. J. T. Breen, Mrs. W. H. Wright, Mrs. Wm. Stevens, Mrs. John Maupin, Mrs. F. Senieur, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Mrs. M. Oldham, J. V. Anderson, W. Oldham, W. A. Cockerell, J. A. Thompson, J. H. Jones, Mrs. E. L. Scott, Mrs. Dr. Buford, Mrs. P. Thomas, Geo. Anderson, W. B. Kidd, W. A. Boyd, John M. Jones, Wm. July, Mrs. John Parrish, John McClure, Miss Maggie Willerson, Joe Willerson, Thos. Calk, Mrs. Willie Benton, H. R. C. Greenwald, Miss Mattie Ferguson, Miss Ross, Mrs. P. Ragland, Montgomery county.

T. P. Young, Thos. Flood, Bath county.

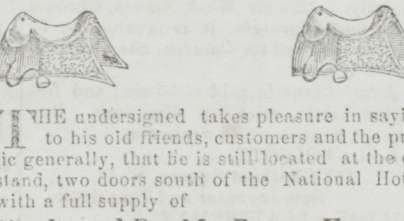

James H. French, Thornton Lewis, Clark county.

John M. Moberly, M. Jones, Bourbon county.

We also refer to the following persons in Mt. Sterling who are using our Manufacturing Machine. H. Campbell, E. T. Smith, Garrett & Rogers, John Curley, Henry Thompson.

P. L. REESE, Agent,
Oct. 29. Mt. Sterling, Ky.

SADDLE AND HARNESS SHOP.

THE undersigned takes pleasure in saying to his old friends, customers and the public generally, that he is still located at the old stand, two doors south of the National Hotel with a full supply of

Single and Double Buggy Harness,

WAGON HARNESS, BREAK HARNESS,

Breeching & Cart Harness

Ladies and Misses Saddle Saddles,

Gents' Plain, Killgore, Morgan, Pad and Jockey Saddles, Boys Saddles, of all kinds, Blind

Bridles, Riding Bridles, Harness Bridles, Martingale, Girths, Buggy and Riding Whips, Co. Hides, Bridle Bits, Back Bands, Horse and Mule Collars, and in short, a

FULL SUPPLY OF GOODS

Usually kept in his line. Special attention called to kind and quality of work, rivaling the strongest competition in quality. Anything in his line

Manufactured to Special Order

On Short Notice. Call and examine my goods, and satisfaction guaranteed. Feeling thankful to the public for past patronage, and soliciting a continuance of the same. No trouble to price and show goods.

Respectfully,
March 6-67 H. C. THOMPSON.

CONSIGN YOUR GOODS TO

P. B. VANDEN & CO.,

WHOLESALE GROCERS,

Produce & Commiss. Merchants

Corner Market and Third Streets, MAYSVILLE, KY.

Staple & Fancy Groceries, PURE

Copper and Domestic Liquors, Always on hand, which we will sell low for Cash, or in exchange for all kinds of

Country Produce

2. B. VANDEN & CO.

75 Dozen Fruit Cans

For sale at Cincinnati prices. July 16. C. J. GLOVER.

THE LARGEST STOCK

Silver & Plated Ware
WATCHES, JEWELRY, &C.
In Eastern Kentucky!
AT CINCINNATI PRICES!
TERMS CASH!
Heavy Plain 18k. Rings Made to Order.
SPECIAL AND PERSONAL ATTENTION PAID TO REPAIRING FINE WATCHES
Mt. Sterling, Ky. Nov. 5, 1868-y. P. L. REESE.

JOHNSON & THOMPSON

Have just received their Magnificent Stock of Dry Goods.

Call and Examine.

THE LADIES

Are invited to call at Johnson & Thompsons and examine their fine display of

DRESS GOODS. HARDWARE EMPORIUM.

MAIN STREET, MOUNT STERLING, KY.

CLOTHS & CASSIMERES

OF ALL KINDS,
At JOHNSON & THOMPSON'S.

Cloakings & Overcoatings,
Just from New York

At JOHNSON & THOMPSON'S.

HOME-MADE AND IMPORTED
Jeans & Linseys,

In full assortment.
JOHNSON & THOMPSON.

HATS & CAPS,
BOOTS AND SHOES,

A GOOD STOCK,
At JOHNSON & THOMPSON'S.

Notions & Dress Trimmings

—Such as—

Gimps, Headings, Fringes
FANCY VELVETS & SATINS,

In endless variety,
At JOHNSON & THOMPSON'S.

Hamburg, Jaconet and Swiss
EDGINGS & INSERTINGS,

Of every Style.
JOHNSON & THOMPSON.

FALL & WINTER
Millinery Goods!

MRS. HORTON

WOULD respectfully announce to her customers and the Ladies generally that she is now in receipt of her Fall and Winter Stock of

MILLINERY GOODS,
Which have been selected with great care, and with a view to suiting the tastes of the ladies of this section. Her stock consists of

Bonnets, Hats,
TRIMMINGS, FLOWERS,

&c, which are of the Latest & Most Fashionable Styles!

She has also on hand a Large Stock of

STRAW GOODS, TRIMMED GOODS,
And Pattern Bonnets,

Terms, STRICTLY CASH
Ladies are invited to give her a call, and are assured that her prices will be as cheap as those of any similar house in this section.

Store on Main Street, opposite the New Christian Church.

Having disposed of my stock of Millinery and Fancy Goods to Mrs. J. C. Horton, I recommend her to my former customers.

Oct. 15 MRS. GARRETT.

DR. LAWRENCE'S CELEBRATED

"ROSADALIS,"

RECOMMENDED BY THE

Best Physicians, and the Leading Men and Newspapers throughout the Country.

Read the following from

"BRICK POMEROY'S" PAPER,
THE LA CROSSE DEMOCRAT,
IN ITS ISSUE OF MAY 12TH, 1868.

ROSADALIS.

"We never commend a thing to the public until we know just what it is, and that is why, having the greatest confidence in the preparation, we can earnestly recommend to suffering public, Dr. Lawrence's compound extract of Rosadalis."

"It is unrivaled as a blood purifier, and is a certain cure for acrofula in all its various forms, chronic rheumatism, sore eyes, eruptions of the skin, and all diseases of the blood, liver, kidneys and bladder. After eradicating every species of humor and bad taste it restores the system to a healthy and vigorous condition, and never produces the slightest injury in any shape."

"Unlike patent quack medicines, the Rosadalis is not compounded of unknown ingredients, but the list of articles from which it is compounded is published and wrapped about each bottle, and wherever it has been introduced the Medical Faculty have most highly recommended it."

"Dr. Lawrence has thousands of the best kind of testimonials from sufferers who have been relieved through the medium of Rosadalis. As soon as it became a little known, it was extensively used, and the manufacturers found it necessary to remove to Baltimore, in order to be able to support the unprecedented demand."

"The Rosadalis is everything that is claimed for it, which fact is evidenced by its rapid sale, and the good reputation it has already obtained. Dr. J. J. LAWRENCE & Co., Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers, Baltimore, Md."

ROSADALIS.

Sold wholesale by all the principal Wholesale Druggists in all the large cities of the United States and British America, and retailed by Druggists everywhere.

All letters of inquiry, &c., promptly answered. Address

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE & CO.,
Sole Proprietors & Manufacturers,
244 Baltimore Street,
Baltimore, Md.

Western Depot—230 Vine Street,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

aug. 13 6th.

MOUNT STERLING

MALE and FEMALE

INSTITUTE.

THE Second Session begins Monday, September 8, 1868, and ends June 13, 1869.

Expenses for Twenty Weeks

Boarding, with washing, fuel and lights $100

Primary Department 15

Preparatory " 20

Collegiate 25

Music—Piano, Guitar and Melodeon, each 30

Use of Instrument 10

French 10

Incidentals—Fuel, Ink, Pens, Chalk, &c. 20

Instruction in Vocal Music free of charge.

All bills for tuition payable each term in advance. On accounts not paid within one month after the opening of each term 10 per cent will be charged. No deduction made except in unavoidable absence, excepted at least one month.

None Unlawful, earnest and energetic teachers will be employed or retained in this institution.

The school rooms are neat and well furnished as any in Kentucky.

New and elegant pianos for use of music pupils.

Board of Trustees:

D. HAZELRIGG, President.

W. M. MITCHELL, Secretary.

J. M. CLAY, Treasurer.

MRS. D. H. HOLTON.

MRS. E. MONNELL, Teacher of Music.

July 9.

HOUSE, SIGN,

—AND—

ORNAMENTAL PAINTING.

M. J. Power.

IS now prepared to execute anything in his line in the most tasteful and workmanlike manner. His facilities are ample for executing all kinds of

Painting, Graining

AND PAPER HANGING.

Imitation of WOOD and MARBLE done in the highest style of the art. Being a practical workman, and one of large experience in some of the principal cities, he is fully prepared to do anything in his line in the LATEST STYLE.

Call and examine specimens at my shop on May'sville street, under the National Hotel.

Respectfully,
Dec. 24-67 M. J. POWER.

U. S. CLAIM AGENCY,

MT. STERLING, KY.

H. C. HOWARD

WOULD respectfully announce to the public that he has established an agency in Mount Sterling, for the purpose of

COLLECTING CLAIMS

Of all kinds against the U. S. Government. His long connection with the Government in an official capacity, gives him advantages enjoyed by few other agencies. All claims entrusted to him for collection will meet with prompt attention. He designs making a trip to Washington some time during the fall or winter, and will prosecute all claims in any of the Departments. His charges will be as reasonable as any reliable agency in the State.

The Wife.
Here is the best tribute to woman we ever read: Only let a woman be sure she is precious to her husband—not useful, not valuable, not convenient simply, but lovely and beloved; let her be the recipient of his polite and hearty attentions, let her feel that her cares and love are noticed, appreciated and returned; let her opinion be asked, her approval sought, and her judgment respected in matters of which she is cognizant; in short, let her only be loved, honored and cherished, in fulfillment of the marriage vow, and she will be to her husband, her children and society a well-spring of happiness. She will bear pain and toil and anxiety, for her husband's love to her is a tower and fortress—Shielded and sheltered therein, and adversity will have lost its sting. She may suffer, but sympathy will dull the edge of sorrow. A house with love in it—and by love I mean love expressed in words, and looks, and deeds, for I have not one spark of faith in love that never crops out—is to a house without love as a person to a machine; one is life, the other is mechanism—the unloved woman may have bread just as light, a house just as tidy as the other, but the latter has a spring of beauty about her, a joyousness, a penetrating brightness to which the former is an entire stranger. The deep happiness of her heart shines out in her face. She gleams over. It is airy, and graceful, and warm and welcoming with her presence; she is full of devices and plots, and sweet surprises for her husband and family. She has never done with the romance and poetry of life. She herself is a lyric poem, setting herself to all pure and gracious melodies. Humble household ways and duties have for her a golden significance. The prize makes her calling high; and the end sanctifies the means. "Love is Heaven, and Heaven is love."

The Art of Dunning.
The art of dunning is not reckoned among the fine or polite arts. Indeed, there are no rules on the subject, as each case must be tried by itself, the success of various expedients being very much "as you light upon chaps." At times, a lucky accident brings the money out of a slow debtor, and after the manner following:
One of our merchants, nervous and irritable, received a letter from a customer in the country begging for more time. Turning to one of his country clerks, he said, "Write to this man immediately."
"Yes sir. What shall I say?"
"The merchant was pacing the office, and repeated the order."
"Write to him at once."
"Certainly, sir. What do you wish me say?"
The merchant was impatient, and broke out,
"Something or nothing, and that very quick."
The clerk waited no further orders, but consulting his judgment, wrote and dispatched the letter. By the return mail a letter came from the delinquent customer, enclosing the money in full of account.—The merchant's eyes glistened when he opened it; and hastening to the desk, he said to the clerk,
"What sort of a letter did you write to this man? Here is the money in full."
"I wrote just what you told me to, sir. The letter is copied into the book."
The letter book was consulted, and there it stood, short and sweet, and right to the point.
"Dear Sir: Something or nothing and that very quick. Yours, etc."
And this letter brought the money, when a more elaborate dunn would have failed of the happy effect.

PROPRIETY.—Merriment at a funeral or in the hour of worship, is not only disgusting, but painfully abhorrent to all our kind and respectful feeling.
There is a simple and beautiful propriety pleasing to all, which gives grace to the manners, beauty to the person, sweetness to the disposition, and loveliness to the whole being, which all should strive to possess. It is to be neither too gay nor too grave, too gleesome nor sad, nor either of those at improper places. It is to be mirthful without being silly; joyous without being foolish; sober without being desponding; to speak plainly without giving offence; be grave without casting a shadow over others. In fine it is to be just what everybody loves and nobody dislikes, and just what makes us, and others happy. This is propriety; and those who possess this richest flowering virtue of the soul, which breathes ambrosial sweetness along every walk of life, get the credit of possessing its counterpart—that rare quality of character honored everywhere, humbly christened "common sense," universally acknowledged to be the best of all sense.—[Hopes and Helps.

Mrs. Partington thinks the pillars of Liberty are stuffed with the feathers of the American Eagle. The old lady is mistaken. Curled Hair is used at present.

An experienced old gentleman says all that is necessary for the enjoyment of love or sausage is confidence.

What is the Life Insurance Policy like Chuckluck? Because when a lucky die turns up, the prize is won.

FALL AND WINTER IMPORTATION NEW GOODS, SAMUELS & JORDAN'S

WITH the opening of the season, we are again prepared to offer to our friends and customers a
Very Superior Stock of Goods!
From the best markets, and which will besold at the
VERY LOWEST PRICES!
Our Stock of
Ladies' Dress Goods
Is unusually fine and attractive. The assortment generally is very complete. Every line of Staple and Fancy

DRY GOODS.
Gloves, Hosiery, Notions
Embroideries, Laces, Handkerchiefs,
The especial attention of the Ladies is called to our extensive stock of FURS!
Which is the largest and finest ever brought to this market, and in which we are prepared to offer superior inducements to purchasers.

PLAIN and FANCY SILKS
Of Superb Quality.
LADIES' CUSTOM MADE SHOES,
Of the very best Style and Qual. ty.
Our Stock of

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES
Etc., for gentlemen's wear, is very large and complete, and embraces all the New and Fashionable Styles.
We would also say to our gentlemen friends that our stock of
HATS, BOOTS & SHOES,
Is very large, and we invite their special attention to this branch of our trade.
SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS TO CASH BUYERS.
SAMUELS & JORDAN,
Main Street, Mt. Sterling.

R. G. JENNY'S CO.,
At the well known house of A. M. January of 50 years standing,
WHOLESALE GROCERS
Liquor Dealers,
Forwarding & Com'sion Merchants
AND DEALERS IN
Wool, Feathers, Bacon
AND PRODUCE GENERALLY.
Nos. 2, 4, 6, 8 & 10, Second Stree
(Corner Sutton) MAYSVILLE, KY.

WOULD especially call the attention of shippers to our facilities for attending to the Commission and Forwarding Business. Our Warehouses are Large, Commodious & Fire-Proof.
Charges Reasonable, and a saving of from 20 to 30 percent in favor of our city. Our stock of Groceries and Liquors
Of every description is complete, and can always
Duplicate Cincinnati Bills
For CASH, or thirty days to punctual customers. Agents for the Kanawha Salt company. Save money and buy salt in Maysville.
Jan. 25-27.

THOMAS, HARRIS & CO.'S
PROTECTORATE
Fire-Proof Paint.
WE are prepared to supply the public with the most durable and best paint that is now in use, for Houses, Railroad Cars, Steamboats, and all other purposes where durability and safety against fire or exposure is required.
The materials from which our paint is composed, are of a nature that will not corrode from long exposure, neither will it contract with cold, or expand with heat. It will not crack or blister after it gets thoroughly dry, as most other paints do when they are exposed to heat.

THE PROTECTORATE PAINT
Is much lighter than lead, will cover a much larger surface than the same weight of lead, and will make as smooth finish as any other paint. It can be finished up in any color that may be desired, and still retain all of its fire, weather, and water-proof qualities.
A full supply of these paints can be found at SEATON & BLATTERMAN'S, Druggists,
Sole Agents,
Cor. 2nd & Court Sts., Maysville, Ky.

WM. REESE,
Watchmaker and Jeweller,
AND DEALER IN WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY,
SILVER WARE, &c.
MT. STERLING, : : KENTUCKY
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry repaired and warranted.
[Je25-]

NIGHT MARE
Is one of the many diseases of which Dyspepsia is the parent. To affect a cure persons should avoid heavy food at night, and take a wine glass full of Roback's Stomach Bitters on retiring to bed.—Breen & Young, Agents.

M. C. O'CONNELL, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCER AND LIQUOR DEALER, Mt. Sterling Ky.

His stock consists of the best choice Staple and Fancy
GROCERIES!
Pure Copper and Domestic Liquors, Wines, Brandies, Gins, Whiskey, Ale, Tea, Coffee,
Choice Granulated, Pulverized, Refined, White and Yellow
SUGARS,
Pure Syrups, Choice
New Orleans Molasses,
Soda, Star and Summer Candles, Bar Soap
Fancy Soap, Starch, Cinnamon, Pepper,
Spice, Cloves, Nutmegs, Copperas,
Alum, Indigo, Camphor,
OYSTERS & SARDINES!
Peaches in Cans and Bottles, Pickles, Sauces, Nails, Washboards, Tubs, Buckets, Blacking, Blacking Brushes, Brooms, Bed Cords, Rope,

Kanawha and Table Salt,
Mackerel, White Fish, Cider Vinegar,
FLOUR & MEAL,
Tobacco and Cigars,
Rifle and Blasting Powder, Safety Fuse, Gun Caps, Glass, Stone and Queensware,

FANCY NOTIONS,
Fancy and Common Pipes, Fancy Candles, Citron, and various other articles in his line, which goods having been selected with care and purchased for Cash, he will sell as CHEAP AS THE CHEAPEST!
With many thanks to the public of Montgomery and the surrounding counties for their liberal patronage in past years, he hopes by fair and honorable dealing and promptness in execution of all orders, to merit a continuance of their favors.
M. C. O'CONNELL,
Mt. Sterling, Ky., Jan. 9, 1893.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medication.
Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative. The obvious reason is, that it is a reliable and far more effective remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but these cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not repeat them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity. They operate by their powerful influence on the internal blood, and purify the blood and stimulate it to healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the system, restoring their health, and thus acting by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease. Almond directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure—
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, languor and loss of appetite, they should be taken immediately after the meals, and restore the healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Biliousness, Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bileous Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the disorder or remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
For Dysmenstruation a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is the most valuable remedy when no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical Chemists,
LOWELL, MASS., U. S. A.
ALLEN & Co., Cincinnati, Wholesale Agents.
JNO. CURLEY,
LADIES AND GENTS',
FASHIONABLE
BOOT AND SHOE
MANUFACTURER,
West Side of the Public Square, near the Post Office,
MT. STERLING, KY.
HAVING just received a large and well selected stock of FRENCH CALF SKINS,
of the very best brands in the market, also French and American KIP and UPPER, I am prepared to Manufacture to Order
In the Latest Style and Superior Workmanship
Ladies Silk, Satin and Lacing
Gaiters and Slippers,
Made to order, in the very best manner and on short notice.
All my work warranted to give satisfaction.
Very Respectfully,
Jan. 9. JOHN CURLEY.

HARDWARE!
Boots, Shoes and Hats.
Wholesale House
MAYSVILLE, KY.
ALL Goods bought direct from Manufacturers for cash. OUR EXPENSES being so light enables us to sell goods lower than any Jobbing House West.
Jan. 23
OWENS & BARKLEY
PILES.
There is no medicine in use so efficacious as Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills for the permanent cure of Blind or Bleeding Piles; they strike at the root of disease, thereby removing the cause.—Breen & Young, Agents.

SADDLERY AND HARNESS MANUFACTORY!

THE undersigned returns his thanks to the public for their liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, and would respectfully invite attention to the large stock of SADDLERY & HARNESS, now on hand, which he is offering very low.
A first class article of Single and Double Harness.
Plain Buggy and Carriage Harness,
Wagon Harness, Cart Harness,
Best Kip Collars,
Mule and Horse Collars,
Backband and Bellybands,
Bits & Brilles, (assorted),
Riding Bridles, Martingales,
Riding Whips, Spurs, Stirrups,
Buggy Whips, Fly Nets,
Fancy Saddle Blankets,
Graded English Saddles,
Horse Covers (assorted),
Warranted Wrought Bits,
He also manufactures on an improved plan the well known
SPRING PAD SADDLE,
Best Hog Skin Saddle Saddles, Killgore and Spanish Saddles, Best MORGAN SADDLE
All kinds of Boys Saddles, Leaping Head Side Saddles, Back Spring Side Saddle, a Mises Side Saddles, and in short an assortment of all kinds of
HARNESS & SADDLES
To suit customers who may favor him with a call.
He is sole agent for the DAYTON
PATENT SAFETY BRIDLE BIT,
Patented August 6, 1887.
This is the best bit ever invented. It combines the principle of all Patent Check Reins and other Safety Bits in a very simple bit, without any complicated arrangements. By the use of this bit a boy can drive a horse at any speed, and pull him up whenever he desires—having a pulley purchase and more advantage than he need employ. Horse men are invited to call and examine it.
REPAIRING done with neatness and Dispatch. Hoping you will call and examine my stock, I remain,
Very Respectfully,
THOMAS CLARKE,
Main St., Mt. Sterling Ky.
May 14.

CATARRH.
Thousands suffer without knowing the nature of this universal complaint. It is an Ulceration of the head. Its indication are Hawking, Spitting, weak or inflamed eyes, soreness of the Throat, or clogged with mucus, dryness and heat in the chest, lungs, or bowels, startle him. He feels nervous, voice harsh and unnatural, feels disheartened, memory loses her power, judgment her seat, gloomy foreboding hang overhead. Many hire some miserable scamp, or some big sounding charlatan, having such a string of pretensions from Europe that they actually bewilder and dazzle their victim, and at once come down with the dust, pays $5 for a useless examination, $50 more as part payment for a job cure.
Dr. WOLCOTT'S ANNIHILATOR affords a safe, sure, and speedy cure, when no bones have come from the head. The nose must be rinsed with Annihilator, by snuffing through to the throat and spitting out the phlegm, and then use the Usher clean of matter and it will heal permanently. Also for Weak Nerves, Chronic Headache and Neuralgia, it is invaluable; 12 pints should be used for Catarrh, one pint each week.
The ANNIHILATOR is sold at 50 cts., and full pints $1 a bottle, with full directions. Buy none except in pure white wrappers.
R. L. WOLCOTT,
170 Chatham Square, N. Y.
Sole Importer and Proprietor.
SEATON & BLATTERMAN,
Wholesale Agents, Maysville, Ky.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.
Splendid Inducements to Subscribers!
The Lady's Friend announces the following Novels for 1893:—"Between Two," by Elizabeth Prescott, author of "How a Woman Had Way," &c.; "The Price of The Man's Love," by Amanda M. Douglas, author of "Debarry Fortune," &c.; "A New Novel" by Louise Chandler Moulton, author of "Fleeing from Fate," &c.; and a New Novel by Mrs. Henry Wood, the distinguished English Novelist, author of "Evelyn," &c.—with numerous Short Stories by a brilliant galaxy of lady writers.
The Lady's Friend will give a finely executed Steel Engraving, a handsome double-page, finely colored Fashion-Plate—engraved on Steel—and a large assortment of Wood Cuts, illustrating the Fashions, Fancy Work, &c., every number.
It will give a popular piece of Music—worth the cost of the Magazine in itself—in every number.
A copy of the Large and Beautiful Premium Steel Engraving—"The Song of Home at Sea"—engraved expressly for our readers, at a cost before the engraving of new $10.00—will be sent (post-paid) to every full ($2.50) subscriber, and to every person sending on a club.—This Engraving is a gem of Art!
To New Subscribers.—Mark this.—New subscribers who send in their names for 1893 before the 1st of November, shall receive the November and December numbers of this year in addition, making fourteen months in all. And all new subscribers for 1893 shall receive the magnificent December Holiday number, making thirteen months in all!

TERMS.
1 copy, and the Large Premium Engraving, $2.50
4 copies (and one gratis) 8.00
8 " (and one gratis) 12.00
One copy each of Lady's Friend and Post, and Premium Engraving 4.00
The getter-up of a club will always receive a copy of the Premium Engraving. Members of a club wishing the Premium Engraving, must remit One Dollar.
Specimen copies sent gratis.
Address, DEACON & PETERSON,
319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

WHY NOT BUY YOUR Lumber, Shingles,
Sash, Doors,
BLINDS, FRAMES, &c.
FROM
CHASE, DIMMITT & COLLINS,
OF MAYSVILLE, KY.,
And save
FREIGHT, DRAYAGE AND COMMISSIONS,
And BUY CHEAPER than at River, Cincinnati, or any other point on the Ohio River.
Oct. 22-y.

HOFFMAN & CO.'S COLUMN HARDWARE!

At the Sign of the

HOFFMAN & CO.,
WOULD respectfully ANNOUNCE to the citizens of Montgomery and the surrounding counties that they have now in store, and are constantly receiving at their old stand, sign of the "Big Lock," fresh invoices of goods in their line. Their stock consists exclusively of
First Class Goods!
Made of first-class material, and of the latest Standard Patterns. Persons buying of them may confidently rely upon getting the BEST, and at prices that will COMPARE FAVORABLY
With those of any similar establishment in the State. They have on hand the following class of Goods:

STOVES, GRATES, &c.
All Styles of Cooking, Heating, and Box Stoves,
STOVES FOR THE PARLOR,
STOVES FOR PUBLIC ROOMS,
STOVES FOR FAMILY ROOMS,
STOVES FOR BED ROOMS,
all of the most Stylish Patterns, most Durable Material, and most beautiful and artistic finish. Also,
FIRE-PLACE FURNITURE!
Including Shelves, Tongs, Pokers, Coal-Claws, &c. Fire-Brick always on hand. Our stock of CARPENTER'S TOOLS
comprises everything usually kept in a Hardware Store:
Hatchets, Planes, Braces, Rules,
TAPE LINES, THUMB GAUGES,
Brace Bitts, Spirit Levels Files,
DRAW KNIVES, SCREW DRIVERS,
PLANE BITTS, AUGERS, AUGRE HANDLES,
HAND SAWS,
Tenant Saws, X Cut Saws
Key Hole Saws, Try-Squares, &c.
Our stock of
LOCKS,
Is the most complete ever offered in this market, consisting of all the best brands of Store-Door Locks, Front-Door Locks, Rim Knob Locks, Stock Locks, Dead Locks, Cupboard Locks, Wardrobe Locks, Tilt Locks, Door Bolts, &c.
Our stock of
PADLOCKS
Is large and fine, comprising several different brands, all of which we offer at very low prices.
TABLE APPLIANCES.
Knives and Forks, Table and Teaspoons, Soup & Sauce Spoons, Waiters, Carving Knives & Forks
From the best English, German and American Factories. Our Stock of
P LTED SPOONS AND FORKS,
Is large and complete, and cannot be surpassed for quality, fine finish and cheapness.
OUR CUTLERY DEPARTMENT!
Is especially complete, being supplied with everything in daily request among ladies and gentlemen, comprising in part of
POCKET CUTLERY.
Of every description and the best brands; Wade & Butcher's, Wostenholms and Joseph Rogers' RAZORS, of all sorts, sizes and prices, which we renew. Also Razor Cases, Honors, Straps, Brushes, &c.
TO SPORTSMEN:
We offer various patterns of
SHOT GUNS,
GAME BAGS,
SHOT POUCHES,
POWDER FLASKS
Powder Shot and Caps,
CARTRIDGES o all kinds, from the largest o the smallest.
To Blacksmiths
We would say we keep constantly on hand a large supply of IRON of all the different sizes.
Horse Shoes, Mule Shoes,
HORSE SHOE NAILS, &c.,
Which we propose to sell as cheap as the cheapest. Our stock of Nails, Screws, Chains, Castings, &c.,
Is very full, and embraces all sizes and makes. In fact we keep everything usually kept in a Hardware Store, and can supply anything from Mower and Reaper to a Grist. In connection with our Hardware Store we keep a
CHINA STORE!
In order to supply the trade, and this trade we respectfully solicit, as we keep on hand a larger stock than any house in this section. Our stock comprises all the latest styles of French, English, and Ironstone Ware, and cannot be surpassed. Tea Sets, Dinner Sets, Toilet Sets, Wine Bottles, &c. To supply a want long felt in this community, they have laid in a full line of
WALL PAPER
Of the most fashionable and beautiful designs, which they will dispose of at a very small advance on the New York cost.
In conclusion they respectfully invite the public to call and examine their stock, and they feel the utmost confidence in their ability to give perfect satisfaction to all.
HOFFMAN & CO.
Jan. 9, 1893.

LIVER COMPLAINTS,

Jaundice and all affections of the Liver are soon removed by the use of Roback's Stomach Bitters and Blood Pills, they are composed of vegetable medicinal extracts with especial reference to their direct action on the liver and digestive apparatus.—Breen & Young, Agents.
"A complete Pictorial History of the Times."
"The best, cheapest, and most successful Family Paper in the Union."
HARPER'S WEEKLY,
SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED.
Critical Notices of the Press.
The model Newspaper of our country—complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper—Harper's Weekly has earned for itself a right to its title, "A Journal of Civilization."—New York Evening Post.
Our future historians will enrich themselves out of Harper's Weekly long after writers, and printers, and publishers are turned to dust.—New York Evangelist.
The best of its class in America.—Boston Traveler.
Harper's Weekly may be unreservedly declared the best newspaper in America.—The Independent, New York.
The articles upon public questions which appear in the Harper's Weekly from week to week form a remarkable series of brief political essays. They are distinguished by clear and pointed statement, by good common sense, by independence and breadth of view. They are the expression of mature conviction, high principle and strong feeling, and take their place among the best newspaper writing of the time.—North American Review, Boston, Mass.
SUBSCRIPTIONS—1893.
Terms;
HARPER'S WEEKLY, one year. . . . $1.00
An extra Copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Bazar, will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4.00 in one remittance, or Six Copies for $2.00.
Subscription to Harper's Magazine, Weekly, and Bazar, to one address for one year, $10.00 or two of Harper's Periodicals, to one address for one year, $7.00.
Back Numbers can be supplied at any time.
The Annual Volumes of Harper's Weekly, in neat cloth binding, will be sent by express, free of expense, for $7.00 each. A complete Set, comprising Ten Volumes, sent on receipt of cash at the rate of $5.25 per vol., freight at expense of purchaser. Volume XI, ready January 1st, 1893.
*Subscriptions sent from British North American Provinces must be accompanied with 20 cents additional, to prepay United States postage. Address
HARPER & BROTHERS,
FRANKLIN SQUARE, NEW YORK.

SICK HEADACHE
Arises from disordered state of the stomach and bowels, and a bilious derangement of the liver, and can be permanently cured by the use of Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills.—Full directions accompany each bottle and box.—Breen & Young, Agents.

HARPER'S BAZAR.
The Publishers will commence, on November 1st, the issue of Harper's Bazar a Weekly Illustrated Journal, devoted to Fashion and Home Literature. Their aim is two-fold: to supply the existing need of a Weekly Fashion Newspaper, and to combine therewith a first-class literary journal, which will be indispensable to every household.
Arrangements have been made, at an immense cost, with the most celebrated of the Fashion Papers of Europe, especially with the famous Bazar of Berlin, which supplies the fashions to the leading journals of Paris, to furnish the same to them in advance, so that henceforth the fashions will appear in Harper's Bazar simultaneously with their publication in Paris and Berlin—an advantage enjoyed by no other journal in the country.
The Patrons of Harper's Bazar will receive every fortnight large pattern-plates, containing from forty to fifty full-sized patterns of ladies', misses', and children's costumes, dresses, under-clothing, and other articles accompanied with the necessary descriptions and directions, and occasionally an elegant Colored Fashion Plate of the size of HARPER'S WEEKLY.
The Bazar will contain 16 full pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine colored paper and will be published weekly.
SUBSCRIPTIONS—1893.
The publishers have perfected a system of mailing by which they can supply the Magazine, Weekly, and Bazar promptly to those who prefer to receive their periodicals directly from the Office of Publication. Postmasters and others desirous of getting up Clubs will be supplied with a Show-Bill on application.
The postage on Harper's Bazar is 20 cents a year, which must be paid at the subscriber's post-office.
Terms;
Harper's Bazar, one year. . . . $4.00
An Extra Copy of either the Magazine, Weekly or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4.00 each in one remittance, or Six Copies for $2.00.
Subscriptions to Harper's Magazine, Weekly, and Bazar, to one address, $10.00; or two of Harper's Periodicals, to one address for one year, $7.00.
Back Numbers can be supplied at any time.
*Subscriptions sent from British North American Provinces must be accompanied with 20 cents additional, to prepay United States postage. Address
HARPER & BROTHERS,
FRANKLIN SQUARE, NEW YORK.

JOB PRINTING

The Kentucky Sentinel

JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

We would most respectfully inform the Merchants and Business Men generally of Mt. Sterling and the surrounding country, that we are now prepared to execute all kinds of
PLAIN & ORNAMENTAL
JOB PRINTING,
On the Most Reasonable Terms.
Our facilities are ample for executing

BUSINESS, WEDDING,
AND
VISITING CARDS,
CIRCULARS,
BILL HEADS,
LABELS,
SOIREE, BALL,
AND
Pic-Nic Tickets.

BANK CHECKS,
AND
CERTIFICATES;
DEEDS, LEASES,
LAW BLANKS,
Letter Heads,
POSTERS,
HAND BILLS,
And every variety of
LETTER PRESS PRINTING.

Mr STERLING, Ky., Jan. 9, 1893.

NATIONAL HOTEL
Mount Sterling, Ky.
WM. S. THOMAS, - Proprietor.
I WOULD call the attention of the public to this house, which I have at considerable expense, fitted up in elegant style, and is now open for the reception of guests. The rooms comfortable, furnished with new and elegant furniture, with polite and attentive attendants, I will guarantee to call and examine their stock, and they feel the utmost confidence in their ability to give perfect satisfaction to all.
Very respectfully,
Jan. 9. W.S. THOMAS.